

Climate lawsuit against Holcim

Brown bag lunch on June 16, 2023 in Geneva

Invited by the HEKS/EPER Swiss Church Aid, a representative of Friends of the Earth Indonesia – WALHI, the largest and oldest Indonesian environmental NGO – will be present in Geneva on June 16 at 1 p.m. at the FES Geneva Office (6bis, Chemin du Point-du-Jour) for a brown bag lunch in English.

Parid Ridwanudin, campaigner “islands, oceans and fisheries” at WALHI, will talk about the consequences of climate change in Indonesia and the fight for respect for human rights and for more climate justice. He will explain the grounds for the climate lawsuit against Holcim, the first of its kind in Switzerland. Yvan Maillard Ardent will present the work of HEKS on climate justice and climate lawsuit. An exchange with those present will follow.

Parid Ridwanudin, campaigner "islands, oceans and fishing" at WALHI

More info on the climate complaint: <https://callforclimatejustice.org/en/>

And on WALHI (Friends of the Earth Indonesia): <https://www.foei.org/member-groups/indonesia/>

On your calendars!

Friday, June 16, 2023, 1:00 p.m. to 2:00 p.m.

FES Geneva Office

6bis, Chemin du Point-du-Jour, Geneva